Highline College Thunder-Word

DEAR EDITOR:

This year Highline Colledge has started out with an excellent team of leaders. Chuck Wham has been tapped to look out for the student body. The paper is being printed by the high school in cooperation with the local store. The members are working hard to keep the student body informed.

MEMORANDUM

This year the members of the Board of Directors will be reviewed to ensure that the student body is being properly represented. The officers and faculty in an attempt to keep the student body informed are working closely with the administration. The students urged to express their views through two-way communication that all sides may be reached.

Sincerely,

Chuck Wham

 نهائيات

Diane Crawford, Julia Huddleston, and Pat Hottenmaim were dressed as Romans for the dance. The idea for the dance was to have students dressed in the style of the Roman Empire. The dance was held at the Glacier High School to highlight the history of the area. The dance was well attended, and the costumes were colorful and authentic.
Last Season

In Review

Once again the Thunderbirds are the team to beat in the South Puget Sound League. Although they finished 17-19 and 8-10 in league play last year, they are predicted to be one of the top teams in the league this year. The team is led by junior guard Terry Acena, who was the leading scorer last year. He is joined in the backcourt by senior guard John Merrell and junior guard Paul Moore. The frontcourt is anchored by senior center Murray Stewart and junior forward Larry Anderson.

THE FIFTH QUARTER

For the third time in a row, the Thunderbirds are the team to beat in the South Puget Sound League. Although they finished 17-19 and 8-10 in league play last year, they are predicted to be one of the top teams in the league this year. The team is led by junior guard Terry Acena, who was the leading scorer last year. He is joined in the backcourt by senior guard John Merrell and junior guard Paul Moore. The frontcourt is anchored by senior center Murray Stewart and junior forward Larry Anderson.

Basket Season Opens Dec. 4

The Thunderbirds will open their season on December 4th against the Highline College Thunderbirds. The game will be played at Highline College's new gym, which will be the first time the Thunderbirds have played a home game in their new facility.

Teams Tied In Bowling Meet

The Thunderbirds are tied with the Highline College Thunderbirds in the bowling meet. Both teams have a record of 2-2, with three games remaining in the season.

All Sciences Merge In New Club

The science majors at Highline College have merged into a new club, the Science Club. The club will sponsor a variety of activities, including guest lectures, field trips, and social events.
