Revolution

by David Israel

Around the globe in the year 1968, discontented students rioted against the Establishment, and the tool of that Establishment: China. Every country offered a different situation for the students, and every country possessed a different situation for the society as an anti-establishment monster, mistaking without war, crime, poverty. racism and an alternative for this vastly mechanized world.

Mark Rudd, SDS founder at Columbia University, explained this phenomenon that has taken on the shape of a revolution. "The youth understand more clearly the oppression of others because we are oppressed, though rarely as directly as by Napoleon or the National Guard. At Columbia we hit not at the people who oppress us, but instead the tool of that oppression, capitalism. As long as we work to kill the Establishment as well as the oppression of blacks and Vietnamese by setting the example," he told the university that we could no longer allow the exploitation of our brothers and sisters. Our was no group of liberals fighting for the rights of others; we felt, the entire time, that we were fighting for our own lives, for our present and future, which has now had expressed meanings.

These are the feelings of thousands of students across our country, students who see racial injustice, and watch the government stand idly by. Students who see their own imperialist sacrifices, the sacrifice of people in Viet Nam.

Students who watched two national conventions ignore the will of the people. Students who watch the wealthy make the political policies from the sidelines. Students who see all the resources and potential of the country possessed to combat crime, illness, poverty and suffering and ask why it does not.

Those people are no longer willing to be manipulated, they want to be able to control their own lives and destinies, so they start for the sake of the Establishment.

They strike primarily at that part of the Establishment which, in their eyes, is the one to allow a day to day basis, the one to be manipulated, channels and control our life to the one that manipulates, controls and channels all our lives to the one that manipulates, controls and channels all our lives to the one that manipulates, controls and channels all our lives to the one that manipulates, controls and channels all our lives.

A revolution is a desire to change society, but to change society's ultimate goals.

The ability to manipulate this stems from communist origin, it is a certainty that with David Israel, one of last year's Community College and Afro-American Society, the White and Black Consciences will, at the very least, be active, and perhaps beneficial.

The other organization, which is still only in the planning stage, will try to deal with something more involved, something more than the manipulation of the University, the University, the University.

We have the power, we have the ability to accomplish as much, if not more, this year with the new image they have created for themselves.

We are not completely isolated, we are still part of the system.

HCC Expects 10% Increase

Full enrollment at Highline Community College is expected to be about 5,000 for the fall term, an increase of about 500 over the previous year for the comparable line Community College. Dr. McFarland said this in his address at the College's annual meeting. He said the college is interested in the long-term growth of the student population, including those who are expected to continue on into the next term. He also said that the college is interested in the growth of the student body from outside of the area.

4 Faculty Attend Institute

Four members of the Highline Community College faculty were chosen to attend a special institute at the University of Washington to study the teaching of social sciences to college students. Dr. Shirley B. Gordon, dean of instruction at Highline College, announced that those attending were Phillip G. Drake, instructor of economics, Ray A. Geige, political science, Daniel B. Brindley, sociology, and Brian Holmes, anthropology.

Dr. Allan Issues Statement On Capital Budget Cut

Dr. M.A. Allan, president of Highline Community College, has issued a statement on the budget cuts for the 1970-71 fiscal year. The college's budget was cut to $493,000, a reduction of $450,000 from the previous year. Dr. Allan said that the budget cuts are necessary due to the financial difficulties faced by the college. He also stated that the college will continue to provide quality education to its students despite the cuts.

New Parking Lot Opens

The new north parking lot on the northeast corner of the campus is now in use. Access presently is from Ninth and 240th. All vehicles parked on campus property are required to have a current college parking decal. Vehicles without decals will be issued a warning ticket and the infraction recorded in the security office. A second violation will result in the vehicle being impounded at the owner's expense ($25).

Listening Attentively

Bruce Donelson, chairman of the Education Committee, carbohydrate, and Terry Hamstead. As membership chairman, Dick Bacon, chairman of the Education Committee, and Carol Cummins, P.T.A., Future Teachers of America, will be working with those students who are interested in becoming members of the organization.

ASIS Offers Jobs Abroad

American Student Information Service, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, has been the American student for a number of years and has one of the best student's opportunity to get a job abroad. It is an organization that helps students find volunteer opportunities in Europe. Students interested in participating can apply through the ASIS office at their college or university.

The problem at Highline is twofold. First, student government is not student controlled. Secondly, it does not exert its influence on the educational system that it should demand. The student government has no student representatives nor does it have student leaders who can communicate on the level of younger students and those more experienced leaders. The problem is the student government has always consisted of a few people. It has done so because those in power have been unable to stop the student interest. Why? Because they offer students nothing. Student government at Highline has no influence on the educational system.
