Activities Regulated

The use of College grounds or facilities for commercial or private gain purposes is prohibited except where commercial activity such as the sale of books, instructional supplies or food contributes to the operation of the instructional program or where limited sale is specifically authorized for the benefit of an approved student activity.

REGULATIONS

1. All fund raising activities of student organizations must be approved by the Dean of Students.

2. All merchandise, periodicals, magazines and books offered for sale may be sold only through the College Bookstore, or College Food Services except when approved as above.

3. All publications such as books, magazines, newspapers, handbills, leaflets, or similar materials other than approved on-campus publications are to be distributed only through use of the free speech table or in an area designated by the Dean of Students. Any person desiring to distribute such publications shall first register with the Dean of Students so that suitable facilities can be assured and the activities of the institution will not be unduly interfered with.

4. All such publications as may be deemed offensive or inappropriate to the purposes of the institution in the judgment of the Dean of Students may be excluded from distribution on the campus.

HIGHLINE ASB OFFICERS

TERRY COOPER - ASB VP

THE VICE PRESIDENT

The Vice President is Chairman of the Activities Council and serves as club coordinator. He works very closely with the President to help coordinate the many programs throughout the year. As do all Vice Presidents he assumes the duties of the ASHC President during his absence and is responsible for the workings of the recognized clubs on campus. As you can see it is also just as important to vote for a qualified Vice President for he must be able to work with the President.

ANDY VANDENBERG - ASB PRESIDENT

THE ASHC PRESIDENT

The President is the official representative at the Associated Students of Highline College and is responsible for all collegiate affairs on the student body level. So he must be able to communicate his ideas and listen to others ideas. He is Chairman of the Executive Board and Ex-officio member of all Student Government committees. He is responsible through these groups for the supervision of the entire ASHC program of social, educational and cultural activities. There is also a lot of involvement in working with other people. So the President should be friendly.

Student Conduct Outline Issued

Highline Community College is an agency of the State of Washington and as such adheres to all local, state and federal laws. As an educational institution it is obligated to demonstrate respect for laws by cooperating in their enforcement both on and off campus.

Highline College is granted the right by law to adopt such rules as are deemed necessary to govern its operations. When these rules are broken the College has the right and the obligation to take that action which is in the best interest of the entire College and which is commensurate with the constitutional rights of the individual. Highline College is privileged to provide those services that may assist members of the community to develop personal integrity in the society which supports the College. To this end, the confidentiality of counseling, health and adviser services will be strictly maintained and all members of the College community are encouraged to seek assistance through these services on a voluntary basis.

Student discipline is the responsibility of the Dean of Students and the President, who will act primarily in the interest of the entire institution but in due regard for the constitutional rights and the welfare of each member of the College community.

Method and Procedures

Highline Community College views disciplinary proceedings as secondary to counseling, guidance, advisement, example and admonition. When these preferred means fail to resolve problems of student conduct, proper disciplinary procedures are established to maintain conditions conducive to the effective performance of its functions, and to protect individual students from unfair imposition of serious penalties.

I Student Conduct

a. Attendance at Highline Community College carries with it the presumption that the student will obey the law, will comply with the rules, regulations and procedures that are or may be established, and will maintain a high standard of integrity and honesty. Therefore, it is expected that students will not engage in such activities as cheating, plagiarism, theft, assault, destruction of property, forgery or alteration of records; that they will not behave in such a manner as to interfere with the conduct of College activities or to disrupt the normal procedures of the College, and that they will respect the rights, privileges and property of other members of the College community.

b. Failure to observe the above standards of conduct shall subject the student to penalties which may include dismissal from the College. When violations of law are involved the College reserves the right to impose sanctions independent of action taken by other civil authorities.

II Responsibility for Discipline

a. Determination of student misconduct is primarily the responsibility of the Dean of Students to administer according to established procedures.

b. The instructor is responsible for conduct in the classroom and is authorized to take such summary steps as are necessary when behavior of the student interrupts the normal classroom procedure. When sanction may be so serious as to result in suspension, expulsion, disciplinary probation or permanent notation on any current or prospective (Continued on Page 3)

Veterans Should Check Paperwork

The Veterans Administration is as anxious as the veteran to have GI education checks arrive on time this fall. John B. Kirsch, Manager of the Seattle VA Regional Office, has announced.

Judging from experience going back a quarter of a century through three GI Bills, Kirsch says the number of delays would be reduced drastically if veterans and schools did their part of the required paperwork . . . and did it on time.

If the veteran who was in college last semester followed instructions and returned his Certification of Attendance at the end of the last term, he has nothing more to do before his checks start arriving this fall, assuming the college registrar follows through and promptly returns the completed enrollment certifications to the VA.

If the veteran did not return his Certification of Attendance, he should do so immediately to reduce the period of delay. If the certification is lost, the veteran should contact the VA office that issued it to him.

Veterans enrolling for the first time—or who have changed college or program—must be certain:

1. They have obtained a proper Certificate of Eligibility from the Veterans Administration.

2. They have submitted this Certificate to the college registrar.

3. The College registrar returned the completed certificate to the VA.

Normally, payment for September and October is combined in the first check mailed to veterans in November.

Cartoonists!

Photographers!

Ad Men!

A few specialized openings are available on the Thunder-Word (college paper) staff, according to Jim Siler, editor.

Cartoonists, photographers, or ad salesmen may see the editor or the advisor, Miss Strehlau, in BA 107.

All other staff positions will be filled from the Journalism credit class, Journalism 101.

CATHY JOHNSTON — ASB Treas.

THE TREASURER

The Treasurer is responsible for all accounts for the financial transactions of the ASHC, and supervises the finances at the student body level. The preparation of the yearly budget is a major responsibility of this position, along with keeping accurate records of all financial business throughout the school year. The Treasurer also acts as the financial advisor to all subsidiary organizations of the Associated Student Body. Keeping the money is not all the Treasurer does so pick a person that responsibility as well.

SUSAN QUINNEL — ASB Sec.

THE ASHC SECRETARY

No, she is much more than just a typist, she is responsible for the recording of the minutes from the minutes of the Executive Board and other designated ASHC committees. The secretary also keeps correspondence up to date, organizes an adequate filing system, is the hostess for the ASHC and is the general "right-hand man" for the other officers. Typing will no doubt help the secretary but as you can see that is not necessarily the most important qualification.

Faculty Expands With Fifteen

Fifteen new faculty members were added to the staff of Highline Community College this Fall according to Dr. Frank Brouillet, Personnel Director.

Some have been teaching in the evening program, one was formerly on the regular staff. One holds a doctorate, most of the others have earned masters degrees.

Ronald Boyd comes to Highline from Honolulu Community College to head the Audio Visual area of the library. Mrs. Linda Brislin holds a one year appointment in speech to replace Charles Sandifer who is on leave. Mrs. Charlotte Davis is returning to the English staff after teaching at the College of the Virgin Islands for two years.

Mrs. Virginia Erickson, who received her masters degree from Eastern Washington State College, will be teaching Biology for fall quarter only. Miss Louise Hayes from the University of Oregon, takes over a full time new position in Mathematics. She was an NDEA fellow.

Kingley Hendrick, who has been teaching part time and in night school for Highline, comes in as a full year replacement for two faculty on leave. Mrs. Ruth Ann Hendricks is a full time replacement in Mathematics. She has been teaching in our evening program.

Brian Hogan who was an NDEA fellow comes to us from the midwest and Western Washington State College. He will be a full time mathematics replacement. Mrs. Judith Mack takes over a new position as Learning Studies Laboratory Coordinator.

Forrest Niccum transfers from the staff of Washington State University to a new position in Law Enforcement. Mrs. Carol Satterberg is a full time replacement in Nursing. Mrs. Jean Still comes to us from Tacoma Community College in a full time home economics position.

Mrs. Ann Toth has been teaching in the evening program as a daytime replacement for one year. She is a full time replacement in Secretary Skills. Mr. Raymond Young is on leave from Western Washington State College and is a part time faculty member in Spanish. Mrs. Marilyn Paquette is a full time replacement in Nursing.

A photocopy machine is available near the catalog in the library to copy materials from books, periodicals, and your own materials. The charge is 10 cents per copy.

Film Series Starts Oct. 7 It's Free! It's Varied!

A program of dramatic, documentary and experimental films will be shown free to all students, faculty and staff at one o'clock each Tuesday in the Lecture Hall. Mr. Jim Smith, Film Series faculty chairman, will provide brief, introductory program notes. Check the library bulletin board for weekly notices or keep the following schedule handy:

Teddy at the Throttle

On Oct. 7, there will be two, short, early films, one a silent comedy called Teddy at the Throttle and the other Sex Life of Polyp, a 1928 satire with Robert Benchley. (Of historical note: as the first sustained dialogue after the introduction of sound to the motion picture.

On Oct. 14, Finnegan's Wake will be shown. This 1965 film is based on James Joyce's book, and translates the one night's dream world, the complex visual/aural verbal play of that book into filmic terms. It is the story of Finn, the Irish hero and all men, coming again. (Finn plus again -Finnegan.) At his funeral observance (his "wake") he wakes into a form of cosmic consciousness.

On Oct. 21, another recent film will be shown: The Bridge. In the last years of World War II in Germany seven ill-trained teenage soldiers are charitably sent to guard a small bridge which, unknown to them, has no military value. Their faithful but absurd defense of the meaningless is a moving anti-war statement.

On Oct. 28, Peter O'Toole and James Mason star in Lord Jim, a technicolor adventure film based on Joseph Conrad's novel.

On Nov. 4, you can see a program of early silent shorts made by three innovative French film makers, just after the turn of the century.

In Me and the Colonel on Nov. 11, Danny Kaye leads those of you who were put off by the somber anti-war theme of The Bridge laughingly through war and romance.

On Nov. 18, Mickey One features a pre-Bonnie and Clyde Warren Beatty. He plays a nightclub entertainer who falls upon the disfavor of the mob; in desperation, he flees from life, uncertain whether or not he is even being pursued.

On Nov. 25, there will be a program of three short features. In The Golden Fish Costeau's fishy world is enclosed by the walls of a goldfish bowl, into which peer a little boy and a big hungry alley cat. Time of the Horn: what happens to a dull afternoon when a boy finds a battered, discarded trumpet in an alley garbage can? The Interview: remember Mark Twain's western-tongued Scotty trying to arrange a funeral with an uptight Eastern minister? In this short film a square announcer and a hip hornplayer have similar difficulty getting past each other's jargon.

For Dec. 2, the feature is Fall of the House of Usher, a 1928 avant-garde, expressionistic treatment of Poe's story.

On Dec. 9, only one 8-minute film is scheduled so far: Treadle and Bobbin. Well worth seeing however, this beautiful color film visually analyzes the movements of the parts of an ordinary sewing machine and recreates them into a beautifully rhythmic composition.

18 New Courses Added to College

The general catalog for Highline Community College this year lists 542 courses for academic, technical, and vocational and general education programs. Last year's catalog listed 524 courses.

Reflecting the changing times, new courses being offered include urban economics, Black Culture, the Indian and contemporary America, and Far Eastern history.

Of the nearly 550 courses offered, 379 are in academic or technical areas that lead to two year associate degrees or that may be transferred to four year colleges; 131 are in technical and vocational programs, and 32 are for general education and refresher programs that do not carry college credit according to Dr. Shirley Gordon, dean of instruction.

New courses have been added in anthropology, art, English, geography, computer science, and social science.

Among the refresher courses is Highline's unique Learning Skills Laboratory course of variable non-transfer credit that permits a student aided by a counselor to coach himself with programmed instruction and teaching machines.

The tape-listening area upstairs in the library provided twenty-four listening stations fed by eight master decks allowing a selection from eight programs at any one time. Besides language tapes, the library has tapes on many subjects. Ask to see a list of tapes available for listening.

record, the instructor must report the infraction in writing to the Dean of Students at the earliest possible opportunity.

III Disciplinary Procedure

- a. Disciplinary proceedings will be initiated by the Dean of Students or his designate. At his discretion an advisory panel of students and/or faculty may be asked to sit at the initial interview.
1. The student shall be advised of the charges against him and of the maximum penalty that might result from consideration of the disciplinary matter.
- b. After considering the evidence and interviewing the student the dean may take any of the following actions:
1. Terminate the proceeding, exonerating the student or students.
2. Dismiss the case after counseling and advisement.
3. Impose minor sanctions such as warning, reprimand, disciplinary probation or fines subject to the student's right of appeal. The student will be notified in writing when a reprimand, disciplinary probation or fine is imposed. If the student is a minor, written notice shall be sent to the parents or guardian.
4. Refer the matter to the College Discipline Committee for a recommendation to the President of the College. The student shall be notified in writing that the matter has been referred to the Committee.
5. Recommend to the President that the student be suspended for a specified time or dismissed subject to the student's right of appeal.
- c. In all cases the student shall be advised of his rights by reference to this section of College regulations.

IV College Discipline Committee
A College Discipline Committee will hear, de novo, and make recommendations on all disciplinary cases referred to it by the Dean of Students or appealed to it by students who have been disciplined by the Dean. The Committee will be composed of the following:

1. A member of the faculty, designated by the President of the College, who will act as chairman for a period of one year.
2. A member of the Instructional Council appointed by the chairman of that Council for a one year term.
3. A member of the Student Affairs Council appointed by the Director of Counseling for a one year term.
4. A member of the counseling staff appointed by the Director of Counseling for a one year term.
5. At the option of the student involved, two students. The two students shall be the President and Vice-President of the Associated Student Body or their appointees.
6. In addition, in cases initiated by an instructor for classroom infractions the Chairman of the Division shall serve on the Committee.
7. The Dean of Students is an ex officio member of the Committee except when it sits in judgment on charges brought by the Dean or his designate.
8. No member of the committee who has previously participated in the particular case or who would appear as a participant before the committee itself, shall sit in judgment during that particular proceeding.

V. Disciplinary Committee Procedure

1. At least ten days prior to the proceeding the student shall be given written notice indicating the nature and basis of the charge and the penalties which may attach thereto.
2. The Dean of Students or his designate shall present the facts supporting the charges of student misconduct.
3. Students appearing before the committee have the right to be accompanied and represented by an adviser of their choice during all stages of the proceeding.
4. During the proceeding, the student shall be given an opportunity to testify and present evidence and witnesses relevant to the charge or possible penalty involved. Subject to the other provisions of these rules, all relevant evidence is admissible which, in the opinion of the chairman, is the best evidence reasonably obtainable, having due regard for its necessity, availability and trustworthiness. In passing upon the admissibility of evidence, the chairman may give consideration to, but shall not be bound to follow, the rules of evidence governing civil proceedings, in matters not involving trial by jury in the Superior Court of the State of Washington.
5. When possible the student shall be given the opportunity to question adverse witnesses. No statements shall be considered by the committee unless the student has had an opportunity to rebut unfavorable inferences which might otherwise be drawn.
6. A record of the proceeding shall be made. This may be a tape recording.
7. Proceedings will be held in open session except that the session may be closed upon request of the student and the concurrence of the chairman. The Chairman of the Committee may exclude from the hearing those guests who are disruptive of the proceedings.
8. The student will be provided with a copy of the findings and with the conclusions and recommendations that the Committee makes to the President. He will also be advised of his right to present, within seven days, a written statement to the President of the College before action is taken on the recommendation.
9. The President of the College shall review the record of the case, including any statement made by the student and shall indicate action taken to the Chairman of the Discipline Committee, the Dean of Students, and the student. Notice of dismissal or suspension will be signed by the President, and if the student is a minor, written notice of action will be sent to the parents or guardian.
10. The Discipline Committee may establish general rules of procedure consistent with the foregoing safeguards. A copy of these shall be given the student in advance of the hearing.
11. Records of disciplinary cases shall be filed in the Office of the Dean of Students. No record of proceedings wherein the student is exonerated, other than the fact of exoneration, shall be maintained.

VI. Readmission after Dismissal
A student dismissed from the College may be readmitted only on written petition to the President of the College. Petitions must indicate how specific conditions have been met and any reasons which support a reconsideration. The President may use whatever review procedures are at his disposal in consideration of readmission.

Narcotics and Harmful Drugs.

The Problem

Available evidence indicates an increase in violations of laws dealing with narcotics and dangerous drugs and a growing disrespect for these laws. In view of this it is imperative that Highline College clearly state and publicize its position in regard to these laws.

The Policy

Highline College cannot condone violation of any law. The College will take whatever steps are necessary to assure that traffic in narcotics and dangerous drugs does not occur on campus or in any area that is under the control or supervision of the College. The College will cooperate with law enforcement agencies in the apprehension and conviction of violators and reserves the right to take independent action against any member of the College community who is guilty of manufacturing, selling, possessing, using or causing someone else to use these drugs or narcotics. The entire College community must take responsibility for the enforcement of this policy.

Disciplinary Terms

Disciplinary Warning:

Notice to a student either verbally or in writing that he has violated College rules or has failed to satisfy expectations regarding conduct. Warnings imply that repetition will result in more serious disciplinary action.

Reprimand:

Formal action, censuring a student for infractions. Reprimands are in writing and imply that more serious action may be taken if further infractions occur.

Disciplinary Probation:

Formal action placing specific conditions upon the student's continued attendance and warning the student that further misconduct may subject him to dismissal.

Dismissal:

Termination of student status. Students may be dismissed only with the approval of the President. Dismissal may be for a stated period of time and may set special conditions which must be met before readmission. There is no refund of fees when enrollment is terminated.

Fines:

Monetary fines may be assessed against individual students. Failure to pay such fines promptly will result in cancellation of the student's registration and will prevent the student from reregistration.

U.W. Offers New Black Culture Course

A critical re-examination of the role of the black man transplanted to alien cultures will be presented by the University of Washington History Department in a non-credit evening program Autumn Quarter beginning October 7 at 7:30 p.m.

The course will present a comparative study of slavery as imposed on the black race throughout history, from the ancient world to the Antebellum South, and including the heritage left by the system.

Individual registration is $16; two family members $25; and U.W. students, $8.

DR. HAMILL — ACTING PRESIDENT

President Greet Highline Students

Welcome to the busiest year at Highline Community College thus far. I extend this welcome on behalf of your President, Dr. Allan, and the Board of Trustees, as well as myself.

To date, enrollments have reached about 3,500 in day classes and 6,000 total students for all classes and will probably exceed 7,000 when all enrollments are complete.

There is an exhilarating feeling of beginning again with a new college year, and for all of us it is a year of challenge. To students, the challenge is to successfully handle the truly tough job of learning. To the faculty and administration it is a challenge to provide the best possible education.

No challenge is met without a firm commitment. For students it is the commitment to learn. For the faculty and administration, it is a commitment to evaluate and improve on what we are trying to do.

There is a great deal of talk these days about the hypocrisy of modern life. However, it is important to distinguish between hypocrisy and the statement of ideals which may for the time be beyond the reach. What separates this from hypocrisy is the honest effort to bring about the ideal, to reach out beyond our grasp. That effort for those of us who share the college experience is a matter of talking and working together to meet the challenges of this new college year.

I wish you, students and staff alike, good luck for a profitable year.

Robert E. Hamill
Acting President

Mennella Named To H.C.C. Board

OLYMPIA — Vincent A. Mennella of Seattle has been appointed to the Board of Trustees of Highline Community College, Governor Dan Evans announced last week. He replaces Glen R. Norman of Seattle who resigned following his appointment to the Higher Education Personnel Board of the state.

Mennella, 46, is president of Southgate Ford in Burien and has served on Ford Motor Company's National Dealer Council for three terms. He is the Northwest representative on the Ford Council on Productivity and is on the company's regional policy council for advertising expenditures.

A graduate of the University of Washington, Mennella served as chairman of Highline Schools' Citizens' Committee at two different times. He is past president of Burien-White Center Rotary Club and served as vice-president of the Burien Chamber of Commerce at three separate times.

He attended the Naval War

College and is a retired captain in the U.S. Naval Reserve.

He and his wife have five children.

His term is effective immediately and expires April 3, 1974.

Parking Critical

Highline College has reached a record enrollment this year of over 7000 students.

Mr. Jim Scott, Law Enforcement Program, announced that, with the extra complement of students, parking facilities at Highline are extremely critical.

To alleviate the problem Mr. Scott urges students to form car pools and those students that approach the college from the West on South 240th Street use the new parking lot on the north side of campus.

The college has arranged for student parking at the Midway Theater on Highway 99. Security protection will be provided.

Starting Monday, cars will be checked for parking decals on the campus and at the theater.

Speaker Policy Outline Issued

It is the policy of Highline Community College to maintain an atmosphere in which a spirit of free inquiry and expression may exist. In accordance with this basic principle, the College makes this specific statement of policy with respect to the appearance of campus speakers:

1. Any speaker invited by a recognized student group may speak on the campus, subject to the procedures outlined below.

2. The appearance of an invited speaker on campus does not involve an endorsement, either implicit or explicit, of his view by this College, its faculty, its administrators, or its Board of Trustees.

PROCEDURES

1. Any recognized student campus organization must notify the Director of Student Activities through the proper form (available in that office) at least three days prior to the event. Notification must be through an authorized member with the approval of the group and the knowledge of the group's adviser. It is recognized that contingencies may necessitate waiver of the three day limit.

2. Appearances shall be coordinated with the master activities calendar maintained in the office of the Director of Student Activities and reservations for room facilities made through that office.

3. In order to ensure open-minded, objective evaluation of divergent points of view, the Director of Student Activities may, whenever he deems it advisable, arrange a planning session with the club members and adviser who are responsible for conducting the meeting.

Al Hirt To Appear

Al "the King" Hirt returns to the Seattle Opera House for a one-niter on Sunday, October fifth at 8:00 p.m. Pee Wee and the Young Set will be there to back up the big man.

As a trumpet player-entertainer, Hirt paid his dues for many years in New Orleans. Now, with a large number of hit singles and albums behind him and years of exposure on major network television.

Often called "King" of the trumpet, Hirt was recently quoted in the New York Times as saying, "I'm a pop commercial musician, and I've got a successful format," which is perhaps as close to a definitive description of his act as can be found anywhere.

Tickets for this Bon Marche Spotlight Series Event are on sale at the Bon Marche and suburban agencies. The performance is presented by Northwest Releasing Corporation.

Watch Calendar On Withdrawal Dates

"Watch that calendar and keep your deadline on withdrawals," is the advice of "the oldtimers" at Highline College. October 17 is the last day for an automatic "W."

A student who withdraws from one or more classes at Highline Community College must report to his adviser to initiate the withdrawal procedure. An official withdrawal from the College is granted only after all the forms are completed and returned to the Registrar's Office.

No official withdrawals are permitted within the last two weeks of a quarter. Regulations pertaining to withdrawal from courses apply equally to withdrawal from College. Exceptions may be made if withdrawal is requested by the College if there are extenuating circumstances. The last day to withdraw officially is December 5.

Season Tickets Offered By Seattle Rep

Highline Community College students have a unique opportunity to be among the first to see all six of this season's productions at the Seattle Repertory Theatre at very special savings. Season tickets for SRT's two student preview series are priced at just $12.00 — all seats reserved — and are now being offered on a first come, first served basis. The two preview series will be presented on specified Sunday afternoons with a 2:00 pm curtain, and Tuesday evenings with an 8:00 pm curtain, preceding the regular opening of each production.

This season's line-up of plays includes Ben Jonson's great moral comedy, VOLPONE; Chekhov's tragicomedy about Russia's pre-revolutionary gentry, THE THREE SISTERS; Kaufman and Hart's hilarious spoof on Hollywood, ONCE IN A LIFETIME; one of the great hits of the 1968-69 New York season, IN THE MATTER OF J. ROBERT OPPENHEIMER by Heiner Kipphardt; the play that established Tallulah Bankhead as a stage star, THE LITTLE FOXES by Lillian Hellman; and the bawdy Restoration comedy by William Eycherley, THE COUNTRY WIFE.

Student series tickets may be ordered on campus or purchased directly at the SRT box office, 225 Mercer, upon presentation of student ID cards. According to Miss Shirley Robertson of the Drama Department, orders will be taken in the Faculty Room No. B213.

Student groups of 25 or more who wish to attend the theatre on playdates throughout the season, may take advantage of another unique offer by the Seattle Repertory Theatre. A special $2.00 group rate is available on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Sunday evenings, and Wednesday and Saturday matinees.
