

Media Release and Clearance

Giving Highline permission to use your photo/video and/or words

I give full permission and consent irrevocably and in perpetuity to Highline College and/or its clients, affiliates, agents and assignees, hereinafter called Grantees, to make or reproduce throughout the world, either alone or in conjunction with other material and photographs, audio recordings, films and videotapes or other media made in connection with Highline College incorporating my name, photograph, likeness and/or voice, either in whole or in part, in material prepared for purposes of advertising, research and client presentation. Interviews, profiles and stories are subject to editing for length and clarity.

It is further understood that Grantees may use said material with or without my name and that Grantees may make reasonable changes in testimonial copy, if any, provided the spirit and content of my remarks are not distorted.

I further waive any right of approval with respect to use of said materials, including photos, and thereby release and discharge Grantees from any claim or liability, including without invasion of privacy or defamation of character based upon such use.

Note: The information you provide on this form will be kept confidential, in accordance with and as may apply under, FERPA—the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. This form will be kept in the program or department office that asked you to sign it. Thank you for your participation.
