

Ethnic & Gender Studies Program Map

Associate of Arts– DTA
General Transfer

Program description

Interdisciplinary study of social identity, systematic oppression, and social justice movement that centers the knowledge of racially marginalized communities. Ethnic & Gender Studies graduates pursue careers in various fields, including but not limited to law, health care, education, art/design, social work, business, journalism, public administration, and government.

Students with degrees in Ethnic & Gender Studies work with, within and between diverse communities, have an eye for contemporary society that reflects the knowledge of marginalized communities, and can effectively implement social justice praxis in the workplace and in their everyday lives.
